

HPAI - HIGHLY PATHOGENIC AVIAN INFLUENZA 2015. USDA PROJECT

Date: 2015

SOW- Containment and elimination of spread of Avian Influenza 2015 existing in operational offices, structures, machinery and equipment for poultry operations located in California and Iowa

Bales Environmental implemented and performed USDA protocol for micro bioremediation of these operational offices, structures, machinery and equipment for poultry operations using USDA, APHIS and CDC guidelines including hydrogen peroxide and other USDA approved protocols.

211 commercial structures, 21 private premises resulting with over 20 million square feet were put back in operation.

